Les Jeunes Du Monde Unis

“Le respect entre égaux, l’institution de la famille, le travail pour une cause et la modestie comme base des relations humaines sont des valeurs universelles qui appartiennent à toutes les cultures et religions et qui devraient être innées a nous-même.”

International leaders will guide participants through topics as education, cooperation, security, economy, sustainable development, globalization, technological and digital development, youth challenges, climate change, private sector and responsible leadership.

Working panels, networking spaces, and several activities will be also carried out during the Les Jeunes Du Monde Unis 2019, so that participants can interact among them and with the guest speakers, creating new growth and development opportunities in their places of origin.
